Ascension

Last week I wrote of the racially motivated shootings. This week we think of brutal killings in an elementary school. These events restart discussion of gun control. This issue has been so hardened in the minds of the people who argue vehemently on both sides that it seems difficult to make reasonable adjustments to laws. Gun control becomes a major talking point after events.

The USCCB statement is this: “There have been too many school shootings, too much killing of the innocent. Our Catholic faith calls us to pray for those who have died and to bind the wounds of others, and we join our prayers along with the community in Uvalde and Archbishop Gustavo García-Siller. As we do so, each of us also needs to search our souls for ways that we can do more to understand this epidemic of evil and violence and implore our elected officials to help us take action.”

The call to understand more the epidemic of evil and violence by searching our souls can be a genuine mission. As we meditate this week on Memorial Day and on the Ascension of our Lord, let us be a people who try to call forth and bring forth what is best in each other. The great power of noble self sacrifice as Christ did and as those who have given their lives for the good of others have done. Let us truly take a moment this Memorial Day to search our souls and hearts for that glimmer of the Holy Spirit, that mark of peace and justice that flows through us in the power of the Spirit.

We will pray at the Memorial Day Mass especially for victims of violence and conversion of hearts and society. The mass is at 9am at Assumption Cemetery...bring your own chair.

God bless you this weekend,

frjoe

Ascension of the Lord

ASCENSION: the act of rising to a higher level

The Ascension of the Lord takes place forty days after the resurrection of Jesus (Easter).

Technically, this day falls on a Thursday, but the celebration is transferred to the following Sunday.

On this day, Jesus was taken up to Heaven in his resurrected body in the presence of his apostles.

BIBLICAL REFERENCES

① While he was blessing them, he withdrew from them and was carried up into heaven. Luke 24:51

② So then the Lord Jesus, after he had spoken to them, was taken up into heaven and sat down at the right hand of God. Mark 16:19

③ As the apostles were watching, Jesus was lifted up, and a cloud took him out of their sight. While he was going and they were gazing up toward heaven, suddenly two men in white robes stood by them. They said, "Men of Galilee, why do you stand looking up toward heaven? This Jesus, who has been taken up from you into heaven, will come in the same way as you saw him go into heaven." Acts 1:9-11

Jesus departs, he ascends to Heaven. He returns to the Father. But this does not mean a separation, for he remains forever with us, in a new way. By his ascension, the Risen Lord draws the gaze of the Apostles - and our gaze - to the heights of Heaven to show us that the end of our journey is the Father... Yet, Jesus remains present and active in the affairs of human history through the power and the gifts of his Spirit; he is beside each of us: even if we do not see him with our eyes, He is there! He accompanies us, he guides us, he takes us by the hand and he lifts us up when we fall down.... The Lord is with us! Pope Francis, June 1, 2014

The ascension is also professed in the Nicene Creed and in the Apostles' Creed:
"He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father..."
