As I watch the political ads and read the headlines of youtube videos by CNN and Fox, I started thinking about President George H Bush's (Sr) line at his inauguration and at his acceptance of the nomination to run for president of working for "a kinder gentler nation". I have always thought that as we get older we tend to think the world is going poorly. I remember my grandparents and parents talking about how bad things were getting and how bad kids are of course this was in the 70's. I am sure their parents before them complained as well.

That being said it does seem like we are a long way from any of our political leaders say we are working toward a kinder, gentler nation. This reminds me of the beatitudes. We read them regularly and think about them but I think our desires for the things of the beatitudes tends to not be very strong. Here are the Blessed according to the Beatitudes: Poor in Spirit, Mourners, Meek, Hunger and thirst for righteousness, merciful, pure in heart, peacemakers, the persecuted and the reviled. I think this is one of the most challenging passages in the bible and it seems like we have said as an internet and news bite culture that they are not even important.

Let us take a break this week and take a look at the beatitudes again.

Blessed are the poor in spirit,
for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are they who mourn,
for they will be comforted.

Blessed are the meek,
for they will inherit the land.

Blessed are they who hunger and thirst for righteousness,
for they will be satisfied.

Blessed are the merciful,
for they will be shown mercy.

Blessed are the clean of heart,
for they will see God.

Blessed are the peacemakers,
for they will be called children of God.

Blessed are they who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness,

for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessings on your week.

On the Feast of St Teresa of Calcutta on September 5th (labor day), we will celebrate the mass of St Teresa at 7:00 PM at St Anthony. As part of this mass those who would like the anointing of the sick can receive the sacrament. Also a first class relic (hair) of St Teresa of Calcutta will be available for veneration. After the mass Patrick Norton who spent time in an orphanage run by the Sisters of Charities will speak a bit about the orphanage and his receiving the first class relic. After Patrick speaks, the relic of St Teresa will be moved to its new home in the adoration chapel. All are welcome to this joyous and healing event.
