Attention Newmanites!

Wait, what's a Newmanite? If you are a member of the Newman Center, you're a Newmanite. We have a long tradition of welcoming everyone to our church. In fact, the Newman movement, here on the edge of the SCSU campus, has been going strong since 1923. Okay, enough history.

Because of this long 100 year history, we are going to celebrate! It all starts on Sunday, October 6th when Fr. Bill Vos joins us and presides at our 10 AM mass. Fr. Bill was the second pastor of our Newman Center. Please join us for this special mass with Fr. Bill. After the mass, there will be coffee and rolls and a presentation by Vern Bartos.

Then, the next weekend, we are going to celebrate in several memorable ways.

Saturday, October 12th, we're having a Family Pub Party where everyone is welcome from age 1 to 101! There will be music, dancing, food, fun games for kids, and wonderful socializing with former staff, present staff, and other Newmanites! All the food and beverages are compliments of generous Newmanites.

Sunday morning, October 13th, our celebration continues with a special mass at 10 AM, presided by Fr. Derek and Fr. Kevin Anderson. After mass, you are invited to a catered luncheon, compliments of generous Newmanites. You only need to RSVP to the invitation you received and then come and enjoy meeting up with old friends and friends you may not have met yet.

These kinds of celebrations don't come around very often so we've invited staff members from over the years of our existence. So, Newmanites, please come and help us celebrate the 100th anniversary of the Newman movement, here on the edge of the SCSU campus.

Cor ad cor,

The 100th Anniversary Committee

Children's Liturgy is starting back up at Newman on October 6!
Kids ages 4-4th grade are welcome to join to hear the Word of God and ponder its meaning in an age-appropriate manner. Our leaders will bring the children down to the Terrace when the readings begin upstairs, and they will return at the Preparation of Gifts. We will offer this ministry on the first Sunday of every month at our 10am Mass!

Synod on Synodality gathering in the Vatican – Oct 2nd-27th

The Synod on Synodality has been a three-year process of listening and dialogue within the Catholic Church, from the parish - and diocesan-level all the way to the global level.

Beginning this Wed, Oct 2nd, the second and concluding synodal gathering in the Vatican will be taking place.

The Synod is a time of prayer, “it is not a convention,” but an “ecclesial assembly that prays,” a time for listening to the Word of God and the Spirit. www.vaticannews.va/en/vatican-city/news/2024-09/synod-presentation-2nd-session-grech-hollerich-ruffini.html
