Sunday (4/7):

Mass: 10am & 8pm

Dear brothers and sisters,

Happy Easter! He is risen, he is risen indeed!

I want to thank all that have put so much time and effort to make these days of Holy Week very prayerful and organized. A lot of behind the scenes work gets put in and for that I am very grateful. The Sequence we hear on Easter Sunday, which is typically read or sung after the second reading, sheds light on the mystery we celebrate. Mary Magdalene, who ran to the tomb, announced to the Apostles what she saw. Each of us too are to speak what we see, our own experience of faith in Jesus Christ!

Christians, to the Paschal Victim

Offer your thankful praises!

A Lamb the sheep redeems;

Christ, who only is sinless,

Reconciles sinners to the Father.

Death and life have contended in that combat stupendous:

The Prince of life, who died, reigns immortal.

Speak, Mary, declaring

What you saw, wayfaring.

"The tomb of Christ, who is living,

The glory of Jesus' resurrection;

bright angels attesting,

The shroud and napkin resting.

Yes, Christ my hope is arisen;

to Galilee he goes before you."

Christ indeed from death is risen, our new life obtaining.

Have mercy, victor King, ever reigning!

Amen. Alleluia.

I pray you are able to spend blessed time with your family and friends these days of celebration. He is risen, he is risen indeed!

Peace,

Fr. Derek

Subject Heading: A New Conversation about the Eucharist (Sun, April 7th)

The "Prayer and Spirituality" committee is hosting another presentation-and-conversation about Bishop Patrick Neary's pastoral letter on the Eucharist. It will feature excerpts of new short video-conversations with several parishioners, followed by a chance for small-group, then large-group, sharing.

Please join us on the Terrace after the 10 am Mass on Sun, April 7th. (Coffee and rolls, as well)

Subject Heading: The Life and Faith of Dorothy Day

In 2015, Pope Francis, in an address to the US Congress, spoke of four Americans who have "shaped fundamental values which will endure forever in the spirit of the American people". One of those people is Dorothy Day.

The US Catholic bishops have voted in favor of her canonization, as someone who is "a saint for our time."

The Central MN Catholic magazine recently posted an article about her life and faith on their website: <https://thecentralminnesotacatholic.org/radically-catholic-dorothy-day-fought-poverty-injustice/>

Annual Wil Illies "Heart Speaks to Heart" Memorial Lecture -- Sat, April 13th

Fr Ed Foley, award-winning author and celebrated preacher, is our speaker. His presentation, entitled "The Justice of the Jesus Table: Eucharist Origins, Inclusion, and Mission", explores the connection between the Eucharistic liturgy and the Gospel call of social justice. It's a connection deeply rooted in the disruptive table ministry of Jesus, practiced in the early Church, and reaffirmed in the US Catholic Bishops' pastoral letter on economic justice. Join us on Sat, April 13th, at 7 pm in the Terrace.

If you are unable to do so, you can access it via our live streaming option (see button on our home-page – www.scsucatholic.org) -- or view a recording of it, which will be posted on our website
